Rexford Industrial Announces Leadership Transition Plans

June 17, 2024

LOS ANGELES, June 17, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Rexford Industrial Realty, Inc. (the "Company" or "Rexford Industrial") (NYSE: REXR), a real estate investment trust focused on creating value by investing in and operating industrial properties located throughout infill Southern California, today announced that the Company has initiated a process to recruit a new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and, upon the successful hire of a new CFO, to then elevate Laura Clark, the Company's current CFO, to the newly-established role of Chief Operating Officer (COO). The Company has initiated an executive search effort through Russell Reynolds Associates to identify and appoint a new CFO.

"We'd like to thank Laura for her exemplary work and contributions throughout the Company as Rexford's Chief Financial Officer. Laura's elevation to the Chief Operating Officer position will represent an exciting, natural expansion of her role and company-wide impact," stated Michael Frankel and Howard Schwimmer, Co-Chief Executive Officers of the Company. "With an unprecedented opportunity for growth and value-creation ahead to build upon Rexford Industrial's focus on the nation's largest, highest-demand and lowest-supply industrial market, the establishment of the Chief Operating Officer role will optimize the alignment and execution of our value-creation initiatives across the organization to maximize the quality and accretive nature of our long-term growth."

Upon transition to COO, Ms. Clark will oversee the operational and growth segments of the Company including asset management, investments, development and construction, leasing, property management and marketing, among others.

"The role of COO at Rexford Industrial will enhance our ability to unite and execute upon our collective vision across all facets of our business to maximize value creation for shareholders through Rexford's next phase of growth," stated Ms. Clark.
